NICHOLALALA

Which one of you is my real wife?

I am! I'm Australian. We met in Australia.
You asked me out the first day we met.
I have a ghost friend and a dokkaebi friend.
I can see many ghosts and things that others can't. My phone number is 010 XXXX XXXX and my bank account is XXXXXXXX...
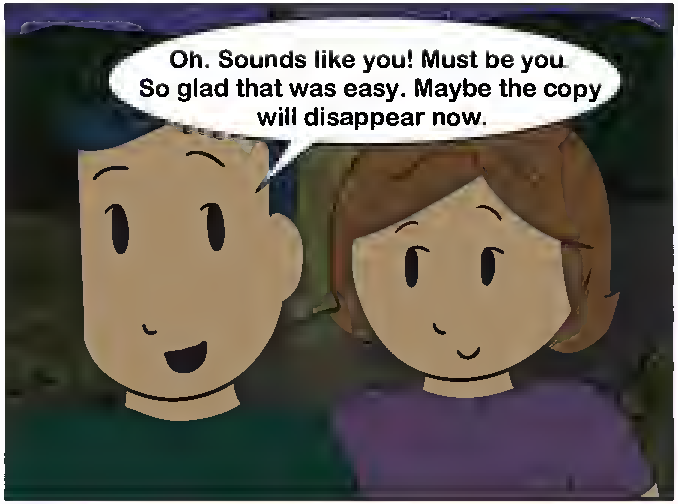
you set it up for me remember?

Huh? How…
Look! She can't even say anything!

You were right, I shouldn't have cut my nails at night. I should have listened to you

I'm so hungry! Let's go eat!
What do you want to eat?



Oh. Sounds like you! Must be you.
So glad that was easy. Maybe the copy will disappear now.

Wait!

How did that thing know about me?
I don't even know my bank account details.

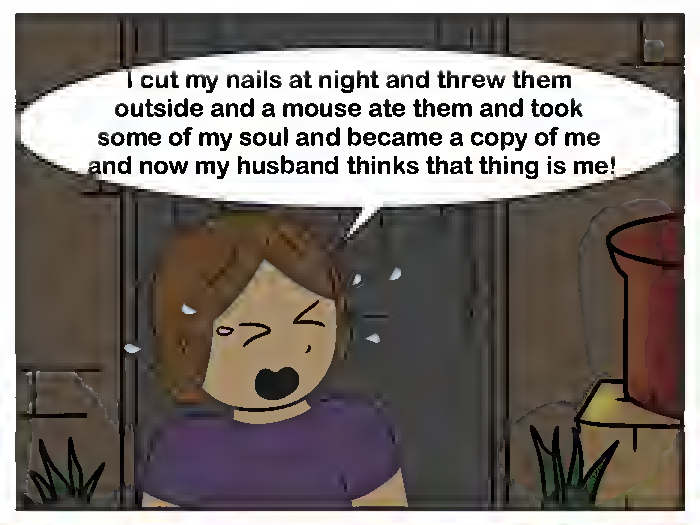
Months earlier...
Yes... Yes... one day...

What can I do?!

I was so frozen in shock
I couldn't say anything!

They even locked me out!

What's wrong?



I cut my nails at night and threw them outside and a mouse ate them and took some of my soul and became a copy of me and now my husband thinks that thing is me!

Oh! You should never throw your nails out at night...
I know that now!
